Oct 14: UMaine Alumni Author Book Signing

Meet UM Alumni authors at the Bookstore: their books available in-store!

Peter Cummings, MD ’97
Author of The Neuropathology of Zombies
10 am — Noon

Peter Cummings is a medical examiner board certified in anatomic, forensic and neuropathology. He is originally from Maine and currently lives outside of Boston with his wife, son and two dogs. Dr. Cummings has also written the textbook, The Atlas of Forensic Histopathology, but the novel The Neuropathology of Zombies is his first work of fiction.

Sandy Caron ’79 ’82G
Mike Hodgson ’79 ’82G
Co-author of Tackling Football: A Woman’s Guide to Understanding the College Game
11:30 am — 12:30 pm

Sandy Caron is a Professor of Family Relations and Human Sexuality at UMaine. She has been both professionally and personally involved in college athletics. but has loved the college football game for more than three decades. UMaine alumnus J. Michael Hodgson ’79 ’82G utilized his 30+ years of college football experience as player and coach to co-write this comprehensive and fun guide with Sandy.

Lynn Plourde ’77 ’78G
Author of Only Cows Allowed!
Noon — 2 pm

Ever since she can remember, Lynn Plourde has loved words and reading. She thinks that being a children’s book author is the best job in the world and often has to pinch herself to be certain she’s not dreaming! Ms. Plourde has written more than twenty books for kids, including Pigs In The Mud In The Middle Of The Mud, a Junior Library Guild Selection, and Wild Child, an ABA Pick of the Lists. She lives in Winthrop, Maine with her family.

Lisa Turner ’85
Author of The Eat Local Cookbook: Seasonal Recipes from a Maine Farm
2:30 pm — 4:30 pm

Lisa Turner owns Laughing Stock Farm in Freeport, Maine with her husband, Ralph. Now in their 15th year of farming, they farm 10 acres of certified organic vegetables plus 5 greenhouses that are heated in the winter with used cooking oil. They sell to 18 restaurants from Freeport to Wells. An avid home cook, Ms. Turner wrote The Eat Local Cookbook to help folks use the 4 seasons of vegetables they purchase through a CSA or farmers’ market.

www.bookstore.umaine.edu

Printed on campus by University Printing & Mailing Services — Auxiliary Services.